Winchester follows the footsteps of America's most crucial innovators, thinkers, and explorers, from Lewis and Clark and the leaders of the Great Surveys of the West to the builders of the first transcontinental railroad and the curmudgeonly civil engineer who oversaw the creation of more than three million miles of highway. In Phase 2 of the control group, a book about animal characteristics was read. I'm not sure the ancients were as precise as we are concerning such things, especially in the case of numbers that surely have some symbolic sense.

Sort: Select. Scholars have shown that in contrast to the underground of the 1950s, in which the consumption of illicit drugs mainly cannabis, LSD, and mescaline and the wish for social change went hand in hand,<sup>33</sup> by the early 1960s the underground had split up into a political, a soft drug, and a hard drug scene. A prevalent feeling among Europeans of the 1950s was that the African peoples required introduction to European culture and technology in order to become more evolved.
