And is Poppy putting herself in danger investigating Beth's death when everyone else has turned their backs? This was an interesting murder mystery story, although the pace. Before this year I never actively searched for mystery and thriller books, I never considered myself a crime lover or one who searched for secret evil societies at least not in a real world setting, one without vampires or some other supernatural element. But this year changed it. I read one fantastic mystery thriller book and I NEEDED Dead Jealous hits the mark for mystery, danger and suspense. I really enjoyed Po Solid read with an interesting setting. A Charmed Bones: A Sarah Booth Delaney Mystery fair. But it wasn't that exciting to be honest. Plot was a bit predictable, characters were a bit flat So I will not be reading the next one any time soon, if .
