Willis, Susan. Some of the descriptive language was a little off for me so it took away from how much I enjoyed the story. As a silent bystander she makes her childlike attachment to and concern for her father emotionally palpable - a brilliant performance of Ocean Barrington-Crook.

Feb02, Joan Horkey rated it really liked it. He went abroad, and in his absence, an apprentice, having dreamed the finished pillar, at once set to work and carried out the design as it now stands, a perfect marvel of workmanship.
